SECURED A QUORUM

How Dr. Stewart Victimized the Medical Profession.

He Sent For Them All to Hold a Consultation With Him.

Dr. P. H. Stewart will have to take the bankruptcy law, if all the doctors who have bills against him insist on enforcing their claims.
For many weeks past the Paducah Medical Society has been unable to get a quorum at its bi-weekly meetings, and last night, when the time approached for the society to elect physiological and pathological respondents and researches, Dr. Stewart, who was to entertain the society, found to his chagrin and professional mortification that there were not enough to elect the respondents.
He endeavored to remedy this deficiency by sending for all the doctors in the city, and at length succeeded in getting a quorum.
In the course of half an hour or more, thanks to the promptness of this "bell girl," he received a duet "Well," and asked for Dr. Trout-man's number.
"Fifty," shouted Dr. Troutman.
"Is that you, doc?" inquired the narrator.
"Yes, what is it?" was the rejoinder.
"I have a patient in my office, and want you for consultation," was the answer. "I wish you would come right away, as it is very important." While Dr. Troutman was hitching up his horse, Dr. Stewart sent similar messages to all the eye, ear, nose, throat, leg, foot, head and every other kind of doctor in the city, excluding only the faith doctors who have lost sight in Paducah.

In half an hour they all began pouring in, and when the largest crowd that had attended a meeting of the society for many months was assembled, Dr. Stewart told them the joke, and there was nothing left but for them to remain. They had a good and interesting meeting, but every doctor declares he will send Dr.
Stewart a bill for the calls they were induced to answer were under false pretences.

ENGLAND'S PEST

The Boers are Not Only Shelling More Towns,
But Are

PRESSING FORWARD AS WELL

British are Slow to Get Into Action at Any Point.

LATEST FROM SEAT OF WAR

PIETERMARITZBURG, Nov. 23.—The Boers resumed the shelling of the British camp at Moot River. The bombardment is heavy. It is said Joubert, himself, is leading the seven thousand Boers believed to be between here and Moot River. The inhabitants here are all armed fearing the Boers are preparing to make a dash on the capital.

DURBAN, Nov. 23.—A battle is momentarily expected at Estcourt, or Moot River camp. Much apprehension is felt over the result, as it is the Dundee and Glencoe situation over again, with seemingly less chance of relief. The strength of the Boers at these places is not known, but it is certain the British are outnumbered.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A Mafeking dispatch of the 20th says the garrison is suffering from the want of pure water. Fever has broken out and many are sick. Desultory shelling of the town continues.

DURBAN, Nov. 23.—Natal farmers are complaining to the British over the advance of the Boers, saying their possessions are endangered. The British authorities replied that the Boers will not harm them, but the Boers lacking faith, continue to leave the colony in large numbers.

DURBAN, Nov. 23.—The possibility of the Pietermaritzburg garrison of one thousand men having to fall back here is receiving serious consideration. The town's defenses are being strengthened as it is feared if Pietermaritzburg falls the Boers will come to the coast. Such a possibility was inconceivable a month ago. It has been stated that the Boers would never approach Durban for fear of the heavy guns on the batteries. It is certain if Boers could reach the bluffs overlooking the town they could seriously imperil the landing of troops from the transports.

AGUINALDO'S LATEST.

Proposes, Says Hong Kong Advocates to Buy Freedom for Philippines

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Hong Kong advices say Aguinaldo is willing to buy peace and wants to reimburse the Americans for the twenty millions paid to Spain, providing troops are withdrawn. If terms are accepted Aguinaldo proposes to set up a form of Republican government on the United States lines.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—A council is preparing to close the Junta here and go to Hong Kong, where the work of the Junta will be conducted in the future.
He said his doing this would be accepted, who says armed resistance is useless and diplomatic work henceforth the only hope.

MAGAZINE DESTROYED.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 23.—A telephone message from Paris, Logan county, reports the town of Magazine destroyed by a cyclone. Magazine is on the new Cheate and Memphis road, sixty miles east of Fort Smith. All efforts to reach Magazine by wire today failed. Booneville, ten miles from Magazine, suffered a severe storm, houses being blown down and cattle killed. Booneville was communicated with, no additional information could be had from Magazine.
Magazine is a town of nearly 1,000 inhabitants and many buildings have been erected since the advent of the Cheate and Memphis railroad. Fears are entertained that there was considerable loss of life.

IN NEW HOME.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 23.—Thirty-seven juvenile convicts were received at the reform school yesterday.
Deputy Warden E. Punch, of Frankfort, brought them. The youngsters will be put to work at once. Others

County Board Considering Final Action on Louisville's Vote.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 23.—The argument on the motion to throw out the vote of this city as given in the gubernatorial contest, because of the presence of the militia about the polls, as charged but not substantiated by the facts, still occupies the attention of the county commissioners.
The argument is being made in the presence of a number of spectators and there is deep interest in the probable action of the board. It is believed that in spite of contention the vote will be counted and sent to the state board for final disposal.
A decision in the matter is looked for this evening.

CRUISER CHARLESTON

Believed at Washington Will

When Last Heard From Was Apparently Sinking and Breaking to Pieces.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—All hope of rescuing the cruiser Charleston or saving any valuable part of the wreckage from her was abandoned this morning by the naval authorities on receipt of the following from Cavite:
"The Charleston was last seen on the 13th, then under way from stern to smokestacks. Three unsuccessful attempts were made to get near her.
Heavy typhoon since. Expect the Cliggon with later news. Signed—Louis." Louis commands the Monterey and is temporarily in charge of the Cavite naval station. Officers here think the vessel is breaking to pieces rapidly, as the last previous report said the water was within six feet of the name plate. The Cliggon mentioned is the naval refrigerator ship, which left Hong Kong with skilled wreckers to make attempt to at least save the Charleston's guns and stores.

proceedings have been begun against Louis Nicholas, John Rice and John T. Williams, election commissioners, to compel them to meet and certify to the vote cast at Schultz and Leather-wood precincts for Clifton J. Pratt.
The election officers at these two precincts failed to certify the vote for Mr. Pratt, and in this way he lost most 300 votes. At Leatherwood precinct the vote for John C. Wood, Republican, candidate for railway commissioner, was not certified, but as Mr. Wood has a safe majority no action is to be taken in his case.

BRILLIANT

Marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth
Rose and Mr. James Smith
Sol-mnized at Golconda.

A MOST BRILLIANT EVENT

Nothing Like It Ever in Southern Illinois—Bridal Party Comes
Here at 5 a. m.

WENT SOUTH THIS AFTERNOON

The most brilliant nuptials ever celebrated in Southern Illinois were last night witnessed by a large crowd at Golconda, Ill. It was the marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth Rose, daughter of Mr. James A. Rose, of Springfield, Ill., and Mr. James Petersen Smith, of the city.
The wedding took place at the First Presbyterian church, which was artificially decorated with chrysanthemums, southern smilax and potted plants. The edifice was completely packed, and there was not standing room long before the time for the ceremony.

The ministers officiating were:
Rev. W. E. Cave, of this city, and
Rev. J. H. Stevens, of Golconda.
The brides were tattered with real lace, and the maid of honor, Miss Allie Sanders, of the city, wore silk covered with organza, and one bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Scholz, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Effie McClay, of Golconda, Ill., were also dressed in tattered silk with organza.
The other attendants were: Mr. A.
S. Thompson, best man, and Messrs.
W. B. Wine, of Springfield, Ill., Otto
Thompson, and Chas. Rose, of Gol-conda, and Richard Rudy, of the city, ushers.

The ceremony was extremely pretty, and the magnificence of the bridal party, enhanced by the decorations and the general appropriateness of everything, surpassed anything ever seen in Golconda. The measured tread of the party as it approached the altar and the kneeling of the couple during the blessing were quite marked features.

After the wedding there was a reception and banquet at the home of the bride's father, Hon. James A.
Rose, from 8:30 until 11. The house was also decorated, and everybody greatly enjoyed the festivities.

The bride and groom received many superb presents, in addition to the earnest congratulations and good wishes of a host of friends.
The steamer Edgar Cherry, which had been chartered for the occasion by Mr. Smith, and with it rubber-tired carriages from Willett's and Jones' string band, left Golconda at 12 o'clock for Paducah, and arrived here at 4:30 this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith went to the Palmer house, and this afternoon departed for the south on an extensive bridal tour, expecting to return about December 10.

The bride is one of the prettiest and most popular young ladies in the entire state of Illinois, and is highly accomplished. She is indeed a bride to be proud of.

Mr. Smith is one of Paducah's most progressive and wealthiest young business men, being a member of the firm J. R. Smith & Son.

Those who attended the wedding from Paducah and composed the party that went on the Cherry, were:
Rev. W. E. Cave, Captain J. R.
Smith, Joe and J. P. Smith, Mrs.
Lamus Orme, Mrs. Millie Davis,
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitteles, Mr.
Harry McElwee, Miss Willie Cooney, Messrs. Race Dipple, Harris Rankin, Miss Rubie Allard, Mr. Alf Stewart,
Miss Janie Rivers, Mr. A. S. Well,
Miss Lizzie Sinnott, Mr. Stanford
Clark, Miss Virginia Reed, Miss
Allie Sanders, Messrs. Gus Thompson,
R. Rudy.

FOOT MASHED OFF.

Bad Accident—Details Richard Marshall in the I. C. Yards

Richard Marshall is the name of a colored I. C. switchman who met with a serious accident this morning about 5 o'clock as a result of his own carelessness.
He was assisting in coupling some cars, when he attempted to push the coupler with his foot. His foot slipped and was crushed between the draw-heads, which closed in on it just as he pushed. Three of his toes and a portion of his foot were badly mashed,
and amputation of the toes, if not the entire foot will become necessary.

FIREMAN'S LEG BROKEN.

Stationman John Slaughter Meets
With Painful Accident.

Stationman John Slaughter, of the central fire department, had been exercising one of the engine horses this morning about 11 o'clock, when he reined up in front of the station and jumped off.
His left foot struck one of the small hydrants in the pavement, and turned, breaking his leg near the ankle.
Dr. Robertson was called and found the break to be a very bad one, which will probably disable the popular fireman for several weeks, at least.

FINGERS MANGLED.

Mr. Will Schroeder, who has been running a typesetting machine at the Register office, had the ends of two fingers cut off this afternoon in the machine. He went to Dr. Robertson's office to have the fingers dressed.

STOLEN BICYCLE FOUND.

Marshal Collins has a Holiday bicycle at the city hall, and he would very much like to find the owner of
it. If any one has lost a wheel of this description, he will do well to call for them at police headquarters.

KENTUCKY'S TRIAL.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—The new battleship Kentucky, which is to have her trial trip off the New England coast Friday, reached this port yesterday.

The trial will have some features which will make it especially noteworthy. Rear Admiral Sampson will be on board the Kentucky, while the presence of the Texas as a stake boat, with Capt. Sigbee on board, also will add to the dignity of the occasion. The naval board in charge of the trial with Rear Admiral Frederick Rogers at the head, held a formal meeting here today to complete the arrangements. The course will be, as usual, to the north northeast from a point off Thalers Island, nearly twenty miles and return, and has already been buoyed by the government. The builders express a determination that the Kentucky shall show that she is a seventeen-knot ship.

NEW RICHMOND.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 23.—The Tennessee senatorial races warming up. Yesterday it became known that Chief Justice Snodgrass, of Tennessee, will enter the race, complicating matters. Congressman E. W.
McMillin are the recognized candidates for the senatorship, and friends of Carmack charge that the candidacy of Snodgrass is in the interest of the governor. A few years ago Congressman Carmack criticised the chief justice for his action in shooting Col. John R. Beasley, at Chattaooga, and since that time they have been bitter enemies.

RUSSIA'S SCANDAL.

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—The Deutsche Zeitung publishes the following dispatch from St. Petersburg: The Czar has instructed Minister of Justice Mangroff to investigate the allegations that M. De Witte, presumptively the minister of finance, has been manipulating the Bourse to his personal advantage.
M. De Witte has made an ineffectual attempt at suicide. His wife requested an audience of the czar, but her request was refused. Several high financiers and officials are said to be implicated.

A POSSIBLE RESULT.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 23.—It is possible that Judge Cantrill may make the race for congress. In that event the Republicans would not nominate a candidate preferring to have a Republican appointed circuit judge in this district by Governor-elect Taylor.

Miss Eliza Works, known as the oldest resident of Monroe county, N. Y., died Tuesday aged 105 years, 10 months and 13 days.

ing by the naval authorities on receipt of the following from Captain
"The Charleston was last seen on the 13th, then under way from stern to smokestacks. Three unsuccessful attempts were made to get near her.
Heavy typhoon since. Expect the Cligon with later news. Signal-Leutz." Leutz commands the Mon-
the Cavite naval station. Officers
here think the vessel is breaking to
feet of the name plate. The Cligon mentioned is the naval refrigerator
ship, which left Hong Kong with
skilled wreckers to make attempt to
at least save the Charleston's guns
and stores.

Marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth
Solemnized at Golconda.

Here at 5 a. m.

The most brilliant nuptials ever solemnized in Southern Illinois were last night witnessed by a large crowd at Golconda. It was the marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth Rose, daughter of Mr. James A. Rose, a citizen of state of Illinois, of Springfield, Ill., and Mr. James Petersen Smith, of the city.
The wedding took place at the First Presbyterian church, which was artificially decorated with chrysanthemums, southern smilax and pot-tered plants. The edifice was completely packed, and there was not
for the ceremony.

The ministers officiating were:
Rev. W. E. Cave, of this city, and
Rev. J. H. Stevens, of Golconda.

The bride wore taffeta silk with red lace, and the maid of honor, Miss Allie Sanders, of the city, taffeta silk covered with organza, and the bridesmaids, Misses Minnie Scholz,
of Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Effie McClary, of Golconda, Ill., were also dressed in taffeta silk with organza.

The other attendants were: Mr. A.
S. Thompson, best man, and Messrs.
W. B. Wine, of Springfield, Ill., Otto
Thompson, and Chas. Rose, of Gol-
conda, and Richard Rudy, of the city, ushers.

The ceremony was extremely pret-
party, enhanced by the decorations
and the general appropriateness of
everything, surpassed anything ever
seen in Golconda. The measured beat of the party as it approached the altar and the kneeling of the
marked features.

After the wedding there was a reception and banquet at the home of the bride's father, Hon. James A.
Rose, from 8:30 until 11. The house
was also decorated, and everybody greatly enjoyed the festivities.
The bride and groom received many
earnest congratulations and good
wishes of a host of friends.

The steamer Edgar Cherry, which
had been chartered for the occasion by Mr. Smith, and with it subterranean carriages from "Willetts" and Jones' strong band, left Golconda at 12 o'clock for Paducah, and arrived here at 4:30 this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith went to the
bridal tour, expecting to return about December 10.

The bride is one of the prettiest and
tire state of Illinois, and is highly accomplished. She is indeed a bride
to be proud of.
Mr. Smith is one of Paducah's most
business men, being a member of the
firm J. R. Smith & Son.

Those who attended the wedding
from Paducah and composed the party that went in the Cherry, were:

Rev. W. E. Cave, Captain J. R.
Smith, Joe and J. P. Smith, Mrs.
Linaus Orme, Mrs. Millie Davis,
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitesides, Mr.
Harry McElwee, Miss Willie Cooney,
Messrs. Race Dipple, Harris Rankin,
Miss Rutie Allard, Mr. Alf Stewart,
Miss Janie Rivers, Mr. A. S. Well,
Miss Lizzie Simott, Mr. Stanford
Clark, Miss Virginia Reed, Miss
Allie Sanders, Messrs. Gus Thompson,
R. Rudy.

FOOT MASHED OFF.

Bad Accident—Retalls Richard Marshall to the I. C. Yards

Richard Marshall is the name of a colored I. C. switchman who met with a serious accident this morning about
lessness.

He was assisting in coupling some
coupler with his foot. His foot slipped
and was crushed between the draw-
pushed. Three of his toes and a portion of his foot were badly mashed,
and amputation of the toes, if not the
entire foot will become necessary.

FIREMAN'S LEG BROKEN.

With a Painful Accident.

Stationman John Slaughter, of the central freight department, had been out exercising one of the engine houses this morning about 11 o'clock, when he stepped up in front of the station and jumped off.

tumbled, breaking his leg near the ankle.
Dr. Robertson was called and found
man for several weeks, at least.

FINGERS MANGLED.

Mr. Will Schroeder, who has been running a typesetting machine at the Register office, had the ends of two
fingers cut off this afternoon in the
machine. He went to Dr. Robertson's office to have the injury dressed.

STOLEN BICYCLE FOUND.

very much like to find the owner of
it. If any one has lost a wheel of this description, he will do well to call for them at police headquarters.

KENTUCKY'S TRIAL.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—The new battleship Kentucky, which is to have her trial trip off the New England
coast Friday, reached this port yesterday.

The trial will have some features
which will make it especially note-
will be on board the Kentucky, while
the presence of the Texas as a stake
boat with Capt. Sigbee on board, also will add to the dignity of the
of the trial with Rear Admiral Frederick Rogers at the head, held
a formal meeting here today to com-
will be, as usual, to the north northeast from a point off Thaddeus island, nearly twenty miles and return, and has already been buoyed by the government. The battleship express a determination that the Kentucky shall show that she is a seventeen-knot ship.

NEW RICHMOND.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 23.—The Tennessee senatorial races warming
up. Yesterday it became known that Chief Justice Snodgrass, of Tennessee, will enter the race, complicating matters. Congressman E. W.
Carmack, from Memphis, and Gov.
McMillin are the recognized candidates for the senatorship, and friends of Carmack charge that the candidacy
of Snodgrass is in the interest of the governor. A few years ago Congressman Carmack criticised the
chief justice for his action in shooting Col. John R. Beasley, at Chattanooga, and since that time they have been bitter enemies.

RUSSIA'S SCANDAL.

Zeitung publishes the following dispatch from St. Petersburg: The Czar has instructed Minister of Justice Muravjoff to investigate the allegations that M. De Witte, presumptively the minister of finance, has been
manipulating the Bourse to his personal advantage.
M. De Witte has made an ineffectual attempt at suicide. His wife requested an audience of the czar, but her request was refused. Several
to be implicated.

A POSSIBLE RESULT.

possible that Judge Cantrill may make
the Republicans would not nominate
a candidate preferring to have a Republican appointed circuit judge in this district by Governor-elect Taylor.

Miss Eliza Work, known as the oldest resident of Monroe county, N. Y., died Tuesday aged 105 years, 10
months and 13 days.

Heroic Escape from Trap.
A rat got caught by the leg in a squealed loudly for mercy. Proprietor of the store watched the which continued to squeal. Finally another rat crept cautiously out walked up to his unfortunate companion and evidently took the situation, for they seemed to talk with other and arrived at the conclusion that the captured rat's chances were desperate, for the second one began to gnaw at the wire of the trap, allowing it to escape, which it followed away on three legs, the other remaining in the trap. It almost seemed as if they had deliberated over and had reached the only possible means of escape.—Bangor News.

As said of James Smithson that morning to observe a tear glistening on a lady's cheek he endeavored to wipe the drop escaped, but, having failed the other he submitted the reagent, and detected what was called microcosmic salt, with murex of soda and three or four more substances held in solution."—Self.

Mrs. David Flournoy Dies After Severe Illness—Sad Loss.

Was One of Paducah's Most Popular and Beautiful Young Matrons.

One of the saddest deaths that have occurred in Paducah in many years was that of Mrs. David Flournoy, at her home, Seventh and Harrison streets, at 2 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Flournoy had been ill for five weeks past, and until the past few days it was thought that recovery was probable. Yesterday, however, she took a turn for the worse, and death was expected for several hours before dissolution finally took place.

The deceased was one of the most lovable Christian women in Paducah, bright and attractive, and beloved by all who knew her for her excellent traits. To be cut down in the full bloom of life, when surrounded by every happiness casts a pall of sorrow on her home and friends, who certainly have the sympathy of all in their great bereavement.

Mrs. Flournoy was formerly Miss Irene Sanders, daughter of Dr. W. H. Sanders, of Arcadia, and was always one of the most popular young ladies in society and in Paducah. She was a graduate of the public schools, and was born in Smithland, Ark. in 1871.

Mrs. Flournoy was married Sept. 29, three years ago, and leaves besides her parents, four brothers, Messrs. Will, Tom, Dave and Dr. Lillard Sanders, and two sisters, and a six weeks old babe.

The funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the house, 433 North Seventh street, Rev. W. E. Cave, of the First Presbyterian church, officiating, and the interment at Oak Grove.

BOX CAR BILL IN JAIL

Is Now Charged With Malicious Cutting In Paducah

He Has Been Wanted Here for Some Time—Comes of a Good Family.

William Johnson, alias "Box Car Bill," was committed to jail this morning on a warrant charging him with maliciously cutting James Alexander. It is alleged that the cutting took place on Mrs. Charity's shanty boat night before last.

The officers had been on the lookout for him, and this morning a telephone message was received from the Johnson foundry that he was coming with some brass, and Lockup Keeper Menifee went down and arrested him.

He has been in jail here several times, the last time for trying to kill a shanty boat together with Dr. Cascarden and others, and he was released from jail by the intervention of his sister, of Cincinnati, who says that the wayward young man comes of a good family, and has had everything he wanted ever since he grew up, but preferred to lead a roving life.

He was formerly arrested here for stealing some leather from the tan yard, but was acquitted.

He is also thought to have assisted Pete Griffin and Tom Holihan in getting out of the county jail several weeks ago. He was here at the time, but disappeared the next day. "Box Car Bill" has spent most of his life on the river, and nearly always lives in a shanty boat.

DIED IN CAIRO.

Mrs. D. C. Wallace Expired After a Long Illness.

Mrs. D. C. Wallace, formerly of the city, and wife of Mr. D. C. Wallace, now of Cairo, passed away at her home in this city last night. She was 53 years old, and had been in bad health for about eight years. She leaves a husband and two children, Mrs. John Smith, wife of the marketmaster here and Miss Debbie Wallace.

The remains will be brought to the city tonight on the steamer Richmond, and the funeral will take place some time tomorrow morning from 915 South Fourth street. Burial at Oak Grove.

First Catch the Mosquito. Then Dissect.

From the Medical Record: To dissect a mosquito, a needle held in the left hand is passed through the thorax the legs and wings are pulled off, and if necessary the scales of the body are brushed off with a camel's-hair brush. The tail is then lowered into a drop of water, salt solution, or weak formalin placed on a glass slide, and with another needle, held in the right hand, the last two segments of the tail are partially separated and held down upon the slide. The left hand is then moved in such a manner as to draw away the insect.

SUCCESSFUL DRIVE.

But Prof. Carraway Was Arrested at the End of It.

Prof. J. A. Carraway, the hypnotist, created considerable excitement and commotion this afternoon by one of his experiments on Broadway.

Several well known men, such as Rev. B. E. Reed, Rev. W. A. Parker, and others drove over the city in a carriage, while Prof. Carraway remained in the Y. M. C. A.

While driving about, the gentlemen wrote a letter, enclosed it in a blank envelope, and placing it in a box at the post office, hid the key.

Prof. Carraway then took the lines blindfolded, and went exactly the same route as the one taken by the gentlemen before him.

It was when the horses undertook to go into the post office that the excitement began, and Officer Jones had to interfere.

Prof. Carraway, however, went straight to the key, unlocked the box, which he found without any trouble, and then carried the letter, which was addressed to Dr. Richard Walker, the druggist, for whom it was intended.

Dr. Walker was not present, and after waiting about for a bit, the professor said that the gentleman for whom it was intended was not present, and asked them to think of some one else. This was done and he carried the letter straight to the one thought of by the bystanders.

After the experiment, which was remarkable, although not new in the science of hypnotism, Prof. Carraway was arrested on a charge of reckless driving, and gave bond for his appearance in the police court tomorrow.

Prosecuting Attorney Wheeler Campbell becoming his security.

Engine Foreman John Brantley, of the I. C. force, had his left hand painfully mashed this morning while making a coupling. It is thought one or two of the bones are broken.

MRS. ATKINS DEAD

Estimable Lady Passes Away at Her Home.

She Was One of Paducah's Best Known Women—Wife of Mr. T. J. Atkins.

Mrs. Florence Atkins, wife of Mr. T. J. Atkins, died this morning about 7 o'clock at her home, on North Eighth street. The deceased had been ill for several weeks from a complication of diseases, and several times her condition was deemed precarious, but she rallied and apparently improved until death claimed her.

While death was not unexpected, it proved a great shock to her many friends. Mrs. Atkins was a lady well esteemed by all who knew her.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. A. Gates Lee, and had resided here all her life, being a Christian woman an earnest church worker.

Among her relatives she leaves a sister, Mrs. Henry Owen and a nephew, Judge W. P. Lee, of Mayfield. She was married to Mr. Atkins about two years ago.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and did much for the common good of humanity.

The funeral of Mrs. Atkins will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the house, 319 North Sixth street, interment at Oak Grove.

Admiral Dewey's Explanation Quits His Critics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Admiral Dewey's characteristic frank statement regarding the transfer of his gift house has had the effect of almost instantaneously hushing up the adverse criticism. Telegrams are now pouring in upon him from all parts of the country containing messages of sympathy and congratulating him upon taking the public into his confidence as to the motives which dictated the transfer. The admiral is pleased at the turn of events and hopes the incident is closed.

LECTURER STAFFORD.

Washington, D. C., correspondent said lately: Dr. Stafford, of the Catholic hierarchy, preaches here twice a month, and he can fill a church full or than any other divine who lives here or who comes here. To get a seat in the cathedral one must go hours before he begins his sermon. Every time it is announced that he will preach Protestants crowd out Catholics, and perhaps one third of his audience is composed of Protestants. I have never seen a man who has seen him, and some of them competent judges who does not regard him as the foremost orator on the American continent. He can fill a lecture hall to the top, and the other night, when it was raining a deluge, the largest lecture hall in the city was overflowing to hear his lecture on "Hamlet," which is said to be a wonderful production. He and Dr. Talmage appeared on the same platform the other night and addressed a meeting called to sympathize with the persecuted Armenians. I read Dr. Stafford's speech and it was a stirring and beautiful address. The Atlantic seaboard is agreed in regarding him as the greatest living orator.

Long Before the Wedding.

"The bride, I understand, will not come down the aisle on her father's arm." "No, papa's arm now takes a rest. But there is something funny in your suggestion." "How so?" "Why, they say that when the bridegroom asked papa for the bride he left the house on papa's foot."

Aged Twins.

Two Bader Haden twin brothers, Michael and Francis Xavier Stephan, have just celebrated their ninetieth birthday.

KENTUCKY'S AWARD.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune "National Committee on Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, has delivered himself of the singular utterance, 'I have no doubt that the state board of election commissioners will award the certificate of election to Mr. Goebel. I can state that Mr. Goebel will abide by its decision.'"

"How magnanimous of Mr. Goebel! So characteristic of his generous soul! Although the people have defeated him for governor, yet if his dear friend and supporter, the state board of election commissioners, in the magnitude of its superior wisdom, shall see fit to ignore the petty fact of an adverse plurality, and by its arbitrary act issue to him a certificate that belongs to General Taylor, he will feel constrained to abide their decision."

"Well, no one having intimate knowledge of Mr. Goebel's distinguishing traits will for a moment question the plausibility of Mr. Woodson's statement as to the Kentucky senator. But in the matter of confident forecast of the election board's awarding to Mr. Goebel a certificate, upon the face of the returns as they shall be presented to its members, is it not reasonable to believe that mayhap Mr. Woodson indulges in violent presumption? Is not the election board composed of honorable men? True, they are goodly adjournments and occupy their positions by grace of his selection, but that does not of necessity commit them to crime. To an outside observer this remark of Mr. Woodson seems a bit gratuitous in assurance, and not altogether complimentary in its all too manifest discounting on the common honesty of the board members. The state election commissioners, Mr. Woodson to the contrary, will not, it is believed, 'award' to William Goebel the certificate that the people of Kentucky have denied him and ordered issued to William Sylvester Taylor."

Prices, night—25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Seats will be on sale Friday morning for both the afternoon and night's performance at VanCulin's bookstore.
